> HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS .- The Executive Committee of the Southern Historical Society take pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of the following documents and communications, and ask from all officers and privates who were in the Confederate service a continuance of similar contributions: From Ike Everett Pearson, of Westminster, Md.: A parrative of events which occurred in Westminster, Carroll county, Md., during the exciting week of war in which the battle of Gettysburg was fought, with interesting incidents of that fight. Will be published in the Southern Magazine. From Le Grand C. Layton, of Brooklyn, N. Y .: The Atlantic Monthly for August, containing, amongst other subjects, "A Rebel's Recollections (No.111) of the Women of the South." From General Thos. T. Munford, Lynchburg: The Maryland Line of the Contederate States Army, by W. W. Goldsborough, LIGHT AND HEAVY HAMMER-THROWING, describing its operations during the war and the important services it rendered. From Judge John A. Campbell, Assistant the real estate of bankrupts, after ten days' Secretary of War of the Confederate States: Original letter to General J. C. Breckinridge, Secretary of War, addressed to him in March, 1865, presenting a full and exact statement of the resources of the Confederate Government, to enable him to carry on a conversation with General Lee upon the state of the Confederacy and its means for maintaining the war, with General Lee's conclusions thereon. These papers will be published in the Southern Magazine, and are exceedingly valuable as matters of history.

From Mrs. C. L. Wallace, of Charlotte, N. C.: Letter giving information asked for generally relative to the services of her son, Nest, in Mecklenburg county, N. C.
